Program Rules

- Employee that is referring the candidate for the position needs to submit a Help Desk ticket to HR at the time of prospective employee's application. (Tickets received after an interview offer will not be accepted.)
- For every person you refer, you will receive $250 after 90 days of continuous employment (including the training period)
- Referring employee will receive an additional $250 after 6 months of continuous employment
- There is no limit on the number of referrals you can make, or the amount or cash you can earn
- Both employee & referral need to be active at time of payouts
- Once qualified, payout time will vary and could take 1-2 payroll periods
- Former employees who are rehired are not eligible for an employee referral
- All incentives are subject to local and federal taxes
- Members of HR and management are excluded from this incentive*
 - * Managers are eligible so long as the person they are referring isn't a direct report

BEFORE submitting a referral through the Help Desk, please have the following details available:

- 1. The full name of person you are referring
- 2. The position you are referring them for and the office/location the position is located

Sometimes it pays to know people.
